If you are in High School and your HS doesn't have a team, or if you did not make your team, you are eligible to play on PBI's HS Spring Instructional Team. PBI's HS SIT gives players the opportunity to play a spring season vs. HS caliber competition.

Do not get discouraged by being "cut" from your HS team. It does not mean that it is all over for your career. There are numerous players that have played on PBI's HSSIT that have made their high school team the following season. Some former PBI HSSIT players have gone on to become a contributing player on their HS's team the next year.
