HITTING & FIELDING

The PBI HITTING portion of the program will cover all of the fundamental skills needed to be a successful little league hitter; including swing plane, lower and upper body mechanics training. The PBI coaching staff will perform innovative drills to increase your chances of hitting the ball on the "sweet spot" consistently. Our hitting stations, when performed properly, create positive muscle memory, effectively replacing poor habits with good habits. Live batting practice will also be part of the program. Bunting skills and baserunning work will complete the offensive training aspect of the program. The PBI award winning hitting program has been developed with the help of Major League Managers Clint Hurdle, Sam Perlozzo and Felipe Alou. Input from Major League players including 2019 American League All-Star Tommy LaStella and Patrick Kivlehan make this the best hitting program for your baseball player.

The PBI FIELDING portion of the program is a simple and straight forward approach to developing solid fielding fundamentals. Students will learn and sharpen basic fielding skills and then move onto more intermediate and advanced skill-work, including backhand drills, forehand drills, short hops, long hops, applying tags, and learn how to consistently field "thru the ball" which is vital to being a solid infielder. Outfield ground balls, fly balls, and getting the proper approach and angles will be covered. Students will field an abundance of ground and fly balls, and make numerous throws from the basic fielding positions and from an off-balance position as well. Long time MLB player/coach/manager Sam Perlozzo, former Major Leaguer Mike Aviles and current Major Leaguer Tommy La Stella constantly keep PBI on the cutting edge of training for our fielders.

PITCHING

PBI will develop solid fundamental PITCHING mechanics and improve command of your pitches through specific training drills. Pitching mechanics will be worked on at every training session through our "building blocks" program that has developed top-level youth pitchers. Pitching can become "easy" when broken into simple to comprehend drills. All students will develop a positive thought process of pitching and understand the responsibilities that are vital to pitching success. All pitchers will throw off of regulation Little League mounds during the final two weeks of every program. PBI's pitching programs are designed with the help of legendary Major League pitching coach Leo Mazzone. Remember, "90% of the game is pitching."
